FILLING CITY JAIL—Some guitar music mixed with some loud profane boogie, raised the spirits of Ophelia Johnson and eight or nine of her guests in room 25, Block 41, about noon today, to the extent that the police swooped down upon the gathering and landed the entire party in the city jail. About that time two others were brought in for being drunk and disorderly, a warrant landed another in the battle on a charge of embezzlement, a woman was gathered in on a charge of assault and disturbing the peace, and still another was arrested for fighting. About this time Chief Bralbois began considering making requisition for the enlargement of the city jail. After a while some of those apprehended began furnishing bail and the crowd thinned out somewhat. In police court the hilarious party drew down fines of ten dollars each or ten days. The majority were satisfied with the day.

MOTHER JONES ON WAY TO PAY VISIT

Noted Labor Worker is Expected to Arrive Here Within the Next Few Days to Look Things Over.

Mary Jones, better known as "Mother Jones," is expected to visit Phoenix within a few days. It has been known for several days that she was expected, but the exact date of her arrival has not been ascertained. The word received here was to the effect that she would be in Phoenix on or about the 15th of May. Governor Hunt is possessed of an example of how well she is known all over the United States. A letter came to his office yesterday, addressed in the following manner: To Mother Jones (Mary Jones) and then underneath that is the following: "Postmaster—Please find her, for I know not where her home may be, but it is in the hearts of the American people."

There was no town, county or state named on the letter, simply the above description. The letter was mailed in Lincoln, Neb. The authorities there were probably aware that she was coming west, and sent the letter to Phoenix. The local postoffice thinking that she would probably call on the governor, sent it out to him. The governor has not been informed of her visit, other than that she is expected soon. In fact he frankly admitted yesterday that he was not very well acquainted with the lady and was entirely ignorant of the purpose of her projected visit.

MESSNER WANTS TO CHANGE NAME

C. D. Messner, of the Southwestern Carburator company, has decided that his company has grown from handling a single line to taking care of so many nationally known products, that it is necessary to change the firm name. To that end he has offered a ten dollar reward for an appropriate name and trade slogan. The company has for several years featured Master Carburators, but during the last two years added other accessories to their line, such as Michelin tires and Valvoline oil.

He feels that the new name should be more comprehensive than the present one, and believes that some one may be able to suggest a name that is fully applicable and suggestive of the character and scope of the accessories which he carries.
